February 2010

Dear Timbits Hockey Player and Parent,

On behalf of the Burlington Tim Hortons Store Owners and the Hamilton Bulldogs Hockey Club, we are pleased to invite you to the 12th Annual Tim Hortons Timbits Hockey Jamboree on Saturday February 27, 2010. The Jamboree will take place at Copps Coliseum in Hamilton, allowing each player the unforgettable experience of skating on the same ice surface as their local hockey heroes, the 2007 Calder Cup Champion Hamilton Bulldogs. The event will start at approximately 2:45pm and will conclude around 5:00 pm. This event is complimentary to players, parents and family members.

Tim Hortons is extremely proud to support minor hockey nationwide, with over 70,000 Timbits players across Canada. Our mission is to help provide a positive start for children in entry-level hockey with the primary focus being on fun. The Jamboree supports this philosophy by providing a fun-filled day of recreational ice skating, cheerful entertainment, healthy demonstrations and an interactive Fun Zone.

After the Jamboree, we hope that you can stay and enjoy the game. Tim Hortons is pleased to provide each Timbits player with a complimentary ticket to the Hamilton Bulldogs vs. Rochester Americans game at 7:00 pm. Additional tickets for parents and family members will be made available on event day at a discounted rate.

Please contact the BLOMHA or Barracudas office for further information.

We look forward to another successful event. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me directly at (905) 339-6003.

Looking forward to seeing you on February 27!
